

WHITE RABBIT CHOCOLATIERS

Beverley's White Rabbit trail

1. Have you got a plain white t-shirt? Well, had you lived a long time ago, you could have brought it here to have it coloured, because Dyer Lane was where all the cloth was dyed using local flowers. No cotton though, just wool; lots of it!
2. Get the band together and strike a pose on Beverley's Band Stand! Also known as Market Cross, where people met their friends on market days.
3. Beverley was known for tanning leather to make all sorts of items, such as boots. Can you find anything else they made? (Clue: look along the arm of the bench here...)
4. Now you have found that, look across the street and see if you can spot something else which would have been made of leather. (Clue: it's on top of a post!)
5. You've reached St. Mary's Parish Church. Find the Pilgrim Rabbit Carving. Take a photo or bring back a postcard to show us. Your reward will be a chocolatey treat! (Psst! The opening times are Monday to Saturday 11am - 3pm)
6. This is Sow Hill. In the old days pigs were kept here, and when the circus came to Beverley their animals were kept here too. Imagine an elephant coming down this street!
7. This building started life as Beverley's Corn Exchange, but has had many uses over the years. Can you find out what else it used to be? (Clue: Look for a doorway down the side of the building. It had a lot of water!)
